FIRST HOSPITALITY GROUP, INC. HOSTS GRAND RE-OPENING OF COURTYARD BY MARRIOTT CHICAGO GLENVIEW/NORTHBROOK HOTEL

Event celebrates completion of $2 million renovation

ROSEMONT, Ill., June XX, 2014 – Rosemont, Ill.-based First Hospitality Group, Inc. (FHG) celebrated the completion of extensive $2 million renovations at its Courtyard by Marriott Chicago Glenview/Northbrook hotel in Glenview Ill., with a grand re-opening celebration on June 24. First Hospitality Group, Inc. CEO Stephen Schwartz made the announcement.

Guests at the “You Deserve S’more”-themed party were provided with upscale campfire-inspired food, drinks and guided tours of the completely overhauled property that showcased the renovated lobby, open concept Bistro with media pods, guest rooms, meeting space, market and the outdoor courtyard now featuring a stone fire pit.

“By incorporating many new elements in this redesign that are specifically tailored to millennials, we were able to rejuvenate this hotel and bring it into the 21st-century, which we know will positively impact our guests’ experiences,” said Schwartz. “Our re-opening celebration was a great way to reveal these updates and build excitement among our loyal customers and members of our local community.”

Courtyard properties across the country have been introducing Marriott’s new Refreshing Business lobby concept that features, among other tech-savvy additions, the exclusive GoBoard® 52-inch LCD touch screen packed with local information, maps, weather, news, business and sports headlines. However, the extensive changes at the Chicago Glenview/Northbrook hotel make it the first Chicago area Courtyard by Marriott to implement the brand’s full “Next Gen CYnergy” package featuring vibrant colors, state-of-the-art technology, healthy and delicious dining options, luxurious linens and plenty of open social spaces for today’s business travelers to connect and recharge.

The 149-room Courtyard Chicago Glenview/Northbrook, located just nine miles from Chicago’s busy O’Hare International Airport, offers two meeting rooms, a fitness center, an indoor pool, whirlpool and complimentary wireless internet throughout the hotel.
